

GRAPHIC ERA HILL UNIVERSITY, DEHRADUN

Profiling Sheet

Q.1: Write your career objective.

To obtain a responsible, challenging and rewarding position in a multi-national company with an established track record where my skills, abilities and technical abilities can be utilized.

Q.2: Why do you want to be an engineer? Elaborate reasons.

I want to be an engineer because it allows me to transform ideas into reality and solve real-world problems with innovation. It challenges me to think critically, adapt and learn continuously while working on projects that shape the future.

Q.3: Write about projects or internship you have done/ are doing along with the learning.

I've completed two impactful projects. The first is Time Bank - A skill exchange system, enables individuals to exchange skills with one another, promoting collaborative learning where people gain new abilities by teaching the skills they already possess. The second project was Societies Management System, is designed for universities to provide a unified platform where all societies & clubs can share updates about seminars, events and activities. This system helps students stay informed and participate in opportunities aligned with their interests, fostering better engagement & more connected campus community. Apart from this I am currently working on two more projects.

Q.4: What would you consider a significant achievement in your life and why?

A significant achievement in my life is representing Uttarakhand at the national level in Taekwondo and winning a bronze medal. It stands as a symbol of my discipline, perseverance and ability to perform under pressure.

Q.5: Write about a failure of yours which you consider to share. What have you learned from it?

I clearly remember hosting an event last year at the Silver Jubilee Convention Centre, where I fumbled & momentarily lost my flow on stage. That experience taught me an important lesson that no matter how experienced or skilled you are, consistent practice is essential to build true confidence, especially when performing on a big stage in front of a large audience.

Q.6: What are your strengths? Write one or two instances where you have demonstrated your strengths.

My key strengths include strong communication and leadership skills, real-world problem-solving ability and effective crowd management. I have consistently demonstrated these strengths by guiding juniors, peers and seniors whenever they seek advice. I take time to understand their situation, share possible outcomes and suggest practical steps they can follow. When they return to tell me that things worked out as planned, it gives me a deep sense of fulfillment and motivation. These experiences reinforce my belief in leading with clarity, empathy & confidence while making a meaningful impact on people around me.

Q.7: Write about your weaknesses. What are you doing to overcome your weaknesses?

My weakness is that I tend to overthink at times, which can lead me to create unnecessary assumptions. To overcome this, I consciously pause and ask myself whether the issue truly matters in bigger picture. I then redirect my focus toward productive work, which helps me regain clarity and maintain balance.

Q.8: What is the most difficult moment that you have faced in your life so far? What qualities helped you to overcome the moment?

During my sister's wedding, I was so deeply involved in responsibilities that I completely forgot I had an exam the very next day. It was only after she left in the morning that I suddenly realized my exam was scheduled for that day. In that moment of panic, my ability to stay calm under pressure helped me regain control. I quickly managed my time, rushed to the exam center, & focused on execution rather than stress. Fortunately, my habit of completing the syllabus well in advance proved invaluable & enabled me to clear the exam successfully.

Q.9: Apart from academics, what else are you interested in?

Make a separate list in terms of extracurricular activities, sports and any other interests.

Apart from academics, what fascinates me the most is event management. From meticulous planning to seamless execution. I enjoy being involved in every aspect of an event, from managing backstage operations to confidently handling the stage, co-ordinating teams, organizing tasks and ensuring everything runs smoothly gives me immense satisfaction. Hosting events and interacting with audience energizes me, as it allows me to connect, communicate and create engaging experiences.

Q.10: Give an example of an area, concept or thing that you are absolutely passionate about.

I am deeply passionate about hosting events, taking initiative and leading from the front. I thrive in dynamic environments where I can collaborate with like-minded individuals, exchange ideas and grow together.

Q.11: Describe yourself as an individual in 5 lines.

(1) I am an individual who is eager to grow, learn & contribute meaningfully wherever I am involved. (2) I carry confidence in my abilities while staying open to learning and improvement. (3) I take pride in my values, efforts & work I do. (4) I believe in accountability, teamwork and clear communication. (5) I strive to evolve continuously & make a positive impact through dedication and integrity.

Q.12: What kinds of people do you enjoy working with?

I appreciate people who stand by their words, take their responsibilities seriously and understand the importance of teamwork. I thrive in teams where members respect opinions, follow well-planned strategies and support each other's growth instead of pulling one another down.

Q.13: What kinds of people you don't want to work with?

What would you do if they became your senior in your dream job?

I strongly prefer working with individuals who value accountability and teamwork. I find it challenging to collaborate with those who are unreliable, fail to keep their word, or shift their responsibilities onto others. I believe a successful team is built on mutual trust, open communication and respect for diverse opinions. If such a person became my superior, I would remain professional, respect their position and focus on clear communication.

Q.14: What do you expect from your first job? Prioritize and write in order.

From my first job, I primarily seek a strong learning experience that helps me build a solid foundation of skills & knowledge. Along with this, I value a positive and supportive working environment that encourages collaboration, growth & employment stability. Additionally, I look forward to opportunities for career advancement and professional development, along with fair and meaningful compensation that reflects my efforts and contributions.

Q.15: In the past year, what have you been dissatisfied about in your performance?

Last year, I haven't utilized my time as effectively as I could have to grow myself. Instead, I ended up draining my energy on distractions like endlessly watching social media & surrounding myself with people who added no value to my life. Their actions often demotivated me and made me feel less confident. This realization has been an important learning experience, pushing me to become more mindful about how I ^{I invest my time & energy & the people I} choose to grow with.

Q.16: Rate yourself out of 5 in verbal communication. What are you doing to improve your communication skills?

I would like to rate myself 4.5 out of 5 in verbal communication. To further enhance my skills, I actively participate as an anchor in events and consciously engage with as many people as possible, which helps me gain confidence, clarity and a stronger connection with diverse audiences.

Q.17: Who is your role model? What qualities of that person you would like to see in your personality and why?

My mother is my greatest role model: I'm inspired by how effortlessly she balances her professional responsibilities with her role as a homemaker, all while managing her time with remarkable discipline. Her curiosity to keep learning, along with her ability to make space for hobbies and personal growth, motivates me to cultivate same balance, resilience & passion for lifelong learning.

Q.18: Write a few lines about your friends. Do you think they help/ may help you in achieving your goals? If yes, how? If no, why do you accompany them?

My friends have been incredibly supportive throughout my journey. They constantly motivate me to strive for better, offer honest and timely advice, & gently pull me back whenever I get distracted. What truly sets them apart is that they celebrate my progress & reward my efforts, even during moments when I forget to acknowledge my own achievements. They play a vital role in helping me stay focused, confident & driven towards my goals.

Q.19: Write 3 leadership qualities. How many do you possess?

Write an instance where you have applied those qualities.

Three leadership qualities I strongly believe in are effective communication, responsibility and teamwork and I possess all three to a commendable extent. During group projects, I have actively organized tasks, guided my teammates and ensured clear coordination so that everyone worked together smoothly and project was completed on time.

Q.20: So finally, tell us something more about yourself or introduce yourself.

My name is Swastika Dabral and I am currently pursuing Bachelor's in computer science and engineering from Graphic Era Hill University. I completed my schooling at Viveka Academy Sr. Sec. School, Rishikesh affiliated with the Uttarakhand Board of Education. I've completed completed two projects. One was Societies Management System, designed for universities to provide a platform where all societies and clubs can share updates about upcoming events, seminars, workshops. The another one was Time Bank, Skill Exchange System, enables individuals to exchange skills with one another by earning time points, which can later be used to learn new skills. My technical expertise includes C, C++, python and strong concepts of Data Structures & Algorithms. I am currently learning Java and advanced algorithms to continuously upgrade my skill set. I have also successfully completed a course on Programming in Modern C++ offered by IIT through NPTEL-SWAYAM. Beyond academics I bring strong leadership and crowd management skills. I have been an active member of official management team of Grafest and several other large-scale events where I gained hands-on experience in teamwork, coordination and execution.

Thank you for your time and I hope you have a wonderful day.
